

CALLING ALL INDEPENDENT ARTISTS AND CREATIVES

COME AND JOIN US!

From musicians to makers, actors to artists, performers to potters, jugglers to jewellers, photographers to felters, arts administrators to acrobats (we could go on - but you get the idea...). Basically, whatever your artartform – we'd love to hear from you!

The team at Northern Heartlands is very excited to have been commissioned by Culture Durham Partnership to set up a new network for creative practitioners in County Durham.

Culture Durham Partnership is investing in artists and WANTS TO HEAR FROM YOU.

Join us on Thursday, 15th April at 7.00 pm

Whatever stage you're at - whether you're just emerging and wondering whether to try and make a career out of your creativity, or whether you're a seasoned professional who's been doing it for years - there's always so much to be gained by sharing your ideas, your wisdom, your worries and fears or your hopes and dreams – and, together, increasing the opportunities that are out there.

SO – we're going to be hosting FREE regular, weekly hang-out sessions on Zoom throughout the summer where you can meet friends old and new, find out the latest news, develop collaborations, explore new ideas or just listen to what others have to say.

Why join us?

- It's FREE
- Informal weekly hang-out sessions on Zoom—meet friends old and new, develop collaborations, explore ideas or just enjoy the craic
- YOU decide what happens
- FREE training and development opportunities based on your feedback
- Runs from April to September

WE REALLY LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU - please share the details with anyone you think will be interested.
